

BIOGRAPHY

Daytripper conjures earth-crushing desert stoner doom from the sands of Phoenix, AZ. Last year, the release of their debut LP, "Book I: The Trip", beckoned to doom worshipers worldwide with infectious riffs and mystifying lore. Their upcoming project, "The Alchemist", evolves and progresses the doom palette while further illuminating the backstory of a core character from Book I. The new EP steeps Daytripper's doom core in a concoction of psychedelic locrian modes, enchanting synthesizers, and nod-inducing sludge.

Title track "The Alchemist" tantalizes listeners with the most iconic components of the new Daytripper sound. Accompanying the single is a narrative music video that transports onlookers into the smoke-filled study of the Alchemist, summoning all to bear witness to his forbidden experiments.

HIGHLIGHTS

Epic, shapeshifting doom and sludge from Phoenix

New EP "The Alchemist" out October 24, 2025th

Title track music video and single out now

Genres: Doom metal, sludge, stoner, drone

What's next:

Daytripper will be playing 'The Alchemist' EP release show November 15th. Then the band will hit the road again in the Spring, this time running up the West coast. Recording for the next release begins in January 2026.

Daytripper - The Alchemist

EP out October 24th, 2025
Self-released (Digital, CD)
Phoenix, Arizona, US

FFO: Windhand, Bell Witch, Slower, YOB

Tracklist:

1. The Alchemist (6:16)
2. A New Leaf (5:14)
3. Ruinous Opus (8:13)
4. Hubris (8:59)

Daytripper is:

The Scribe Sage - Vox, Guitar, Violin
The Plirate Sage - Guitar
The Rogue Sage - Bass
The Warrior Sage - Drums
The Seer Sage - Vocals, Synth, Guitar

LINKS

